This Week's Scripture

"Come after me and I will make you fishers of men," Luke 5:10, where Jesus calls His first disciples.

An exercise for this week:

An exercise for this week: As we hear Jesus' call to become "fishers of men," reflect on how you can help bring others closer to Christ. This week, consider how you can share your faith with someone—whether through a kind word, inviting them to Mass, or offering help to those in need. Challenge yourself to live out your faith in a way that draws others to the love and hope of Christ.

Preventing Homelessness Through Early Intervention

Love your Neighbor Live Vincentian

A study from the University of Notre Dame found that families receiving emergency financial assistance were 81% less likely to become homeless in six months and 73% less likely in twelve months. Early intervention is more cost-effective than waiting until families are already homeless.

At St. Vincent de Paul, we prevent homelessness through home visits. Two Vincentians (generally a male and female) visit families, listen to their needs, and offer support like groceries, utility payments, or rent assistance. This vital aid helps neighbors avoid deeper poverty and regain stability, making a lasting impact on their lives.

MINISTRY SPOTLIGHT

Stephen Ministry

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Are you called to bring Christ's love and care to those in need?

Stephen Ministers are lay parishioners trained to provide one-to-one support for those facing difficult life challenges such as grief, divorce, job loss, chronic illness, or relocation. They come from all walks of life but share a common mission: to offer compassionate, Christ-centered care during times of struggle.

📺 Watch this short video to learn more: www.hsccatl.com/StephenVideo

Since 1975, over 600,000 people from 13,000+ churches have been trained as Stephen Ministers. This ministry is a complete system of training, organizing, and supporting laypersons in a structured, faith-based approach to caring for others.

For more information or to join the Stephen Ministry, contact Chuck Bolash at 404-578-3047 or chuckbolash@bellsouth.net

What Does It Take to Be a Stephen Minister?

- Commitment: a two-year journey of service.
- Training: 50 hours of in-depth instruction.
- Service: approximately one hour per week with a care receiver.
- Ongoing Support: bi-monthly group meetings, mini-retreats, and conferences.

Why Join Stephen Ministry?

Becoming a Stephen Minister is a transformative experience that not only allows you to serve others but also deepens your own faith and personal growth. Through training and service, Stephen Ministers gain invaluable skills and insights that last a lifetime.

- Personal Growth: Strengthen your faith, deepen your compassion, and develop a heart for service. "I found the training to be life-changing, both personally and professionally."
- The Power of Presence: Learn how to offer comfort by simply being there for someone in need. "Stephen Ministry taught me to truly listen and just be there for someone."
- Skill Development: Build confidence in providing care, strengthening your ability to listen, empathize, and walk alongside others in their journey. "The biggest lesson I learned was that God is the true healer—I am simply there to walk alongside my care receiver."

Stephen Ministers Ken Menendez, Alejandra Praddaude, and Chuck Bolash

Stephen Ministry is a deeply fulfilling way to serve others while growing in faith. As one longtime minister shares:

"I have been a Stephen Minister for over 27 years, and I am always amazed at how the Holy Spirit works through this ministry.

We walk with hurting people while Christ brings the healing.

Our motto says it best: 'Stephen Ministers are the Care Givers. Christ is the Cure Giver.'" - Chuck Bolash

Stephen Ministry is in need of compassionate volunteers to walk alongside those facing life's challenges. Please prayerfully consider if God is calling you to serve in this vital ministry of care and support.

Para Reflexionar en Nuestros Hogares

Cita Bíblica

"Venid en pos de mí, y os haré pescadores de hombres". Lucas 5:10, donde Jesús llama a los primeros discípulos.

Ejercicio de la semana

Un ejercicio para esta semana: mientras escuchamos el llamado de Jesús a convertirnos en " pescadores de hombres", reflexionemos sobre cómo podemos ayudar a que otros se acerquen a Cristo. Esta semana, pensemos en cómo compartir nuestra fe con alguien, ya sea mediante una palabra amable, invitándolo a misa u ofreciendo ayuda a los necesitados.Desafiense a vivir su fe de una manera que atraiga a otros al amor y la esperanza de Cristo
