This Week's Scripture

*"Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near."
- Matthew 4:17*

An exercise for this week:

This week, reflect on areas of your life where you can turn closer to God—through forgiveness, service, or renewed attention to prayer and faith. Seek out one way to live more fully in God's kingdom, whether by helping a neighbor, offering encouragement, or standing up for what is right. By aligning your actions with God's call, you become part of something greater—participating in the work of God's kingdom here and now.

MARILLAC MOMS

Is Coming to Holy Spirit

Supporting life. Loving our neighbors. Living the Gospel together.

Dear Parish Family,

Our Catholic faith calls us not only to uphold the dignity of life, but to walk closely with those who are most vulnerable. I am grateful to share an update as Holy Spirit Catholic Church prepares to launch Marillac Moms, a new parishwide ministry supporting a pregnant Mom with children who are experiencing homelessness.

Through Marillac Moms, Holy Spirit is partnering with St. Vincent de Paul Georgia to provide safe housing and stabilizing support for a mother in crisis. Inspired by the witness of St. Louise de Marillac, this ministry helps mothers welcome their children and work toward a stable, hope-filled future.

Marillac Moms is a collaborative effort across our parish, bringing together our St. Vincent de Paul Conference, Walking with Moms in Need, Knights of Columbus and other parish ministries and volunteers to walk with mothers and children with compassion, dignity, and hope.

I am pleased to share that St. Vincent de Paul Georgia has secured a two-bedroom apartment at Walton on the Chattahoochee and is currently working to identify the right family for this home, with an anticipated move-in in February.

Because of the generosity of a Holy Spirit parishioner, our parish is able to help sponsor this home and surround a mother and her children with care and community. St. Vincent de Paul Georgia will manage the housing and program support, while Holy Spirit provides volunteers, prayer, and community support.

Volunteer roles within our parish are now being filled, and we are asking for help with specific donations of household and baby supplies for this family.

I ask you to please keep this mother and her children in your prayers as we prepare to welcome them. I also invite you to consider how God may be calling you to be part of this ministry — through service, generosity, encouragement, or prayer.

Please watch the bulletin and visit our website to learn more and stay updated:

www.hscatl.com/marillacmoms

Thank you for living your faith in such a beautiful and concrete way. Together, as one parish family, we truly are Part of Something Greater.

With gratitude,

Father Luke Ballman

Why This Matters

Pregnant women and single mothers face immense challenges. Housing instability is one of the leading pressures that can place both mother and child at risk. When housing is stable, pregnancies are healthier, families are stronger, and futures are brighter.

Through Marillac Moms, our parish is walking alongside mothers in crisis, providing dignity, hope, and practical care.

MARILLAC MOMS

Supporting women with compassion and community, inspired by St. Louise de Marillac.

A parishwide collaboration of:

Holy Spirit Vincentians • Walking with Moms in Need • Knights of Columbus • Ministries across our parish

Holy Spirit Catholic Church is launching Marillac Moms, a new transitional housing ministry in partnership with St. Vincent de Paul Georgia, welcoming a pregnant mother and her children into a safe, stable home this February.

Parish News

Discerning a Sacred Place of Remembrance Together - Please Complete the Columbarium Interest Survey by January 31

Several weeks ago, Fr. Ballman introduced the proposed expansion of our Memorial Garden to include a columbarium — a sacred place of prayer, remembrance, and hope within the heart of our parish campus.

We value your input! Please take just 2 minutes to complete our anonymous survey by January 31 to help us plan this sacred space thoughtfully. Paper copies are available in the Narthex and parish office.

FINAL DAYS - JANUARY FOOD DRIVE

These are the FINAL DAYS to support the local Community Assistance Center (CAC) food drive. Collection barrels are located in the Narthex, the entrance to St. Mary's Chapel, and at the entrance to the preschool. Help us reach our goal of 2,000 lbs. of food by January 31!

Scan the QR code for the shopping list or view the list on the parish website.

The Sandy Springs Community Assistance Center (CAC) helps alleviate hunger and prevent homelessness in the local community by offering free food to those in need in Sandy Springs. Each month CAC serves approximately 500 families, many of whom rely on weekly assistance.

McDonough Hall Closed for Renovation

Please note that McDonough Hall is closed for a planned renovation through February 7 (please note revised end date). We will pause our coffee and doughnut hospitality this weekend and next. We look forward to welcoming everyone to a new and improved McDonough Hall soon. Thank you for your understanding.

Now Hiring: Internal Development & Stewardship Manager (Part-Time)

Holy Spirit Catholic Church is seeking a part-time Internal Development & Stewardship Manager to help advance the parish's mission by leading the annual Offertory Campaign and coordinating parish efforts for the Archbishop's Annual Appeal. Working closely with clergy, staff, and volunteers, the manager will help communicate the impact of stewardship, support parishioner relationships, and ensure thoughtful follow-up and accountability while reflecting the values and spirit of our parish community.

The ideal candidate is highly organized, service-oriented, and comfortable working with data, communications, and parishioners alike. This role combines strategic planning with hands-on coordination, offering meaningful work in a collaborative parish environment. With flexible part-time hours and opportunities for deeper involvement during key campaign seasons, this position is well suited for someone who is passionate about stewardship, committed to the Church's mission, and eager to help Holy Spirit Catholic Church grow in generosity and discipleship.

Contact Debbie Slinkard, Director of Mission Advancement & Development, at dslinkard@hscatl.com for more information. See the website for a full job description.

When What's Needed Most Isn't Money ...

St. Vincent de Paul
GEORGIA
FEED. CLOTHE. HOUSE. HEAL.

Sometimes the greatest gift we can offer isn't financial help—it's simple human kindness.

Recently, our St. Vincent de Paul team visited an 83-year-old neighbor at Balser Tower who is visually impaired and trying her best to stay independent. She didn't need money; she needed support. We brought groceries and hygiene items, helped her set up her Alexa (a lifeline for someone who relies on voice commands), and arranged for her apartment to be deep cleaned so she could feel safe and comfortable again.

Encounters like hers remind us that compassion comes in many forms—and that neighbors helping neighbors is at the heart of our ministry.

Move, Pray, and Renew: SoulCore Retreats this Lent

Interested in SoulCore (classes where you pray the rosary to exercises)? In addition to a weekly Tuesday 11:00 AM class at Holy Spirit in the Youth Center, Catherine Fuss will be co-leading two retreats at Heritage Retreat Center in Sharon. There's a mid-week option March 24 - 26 and a weekend format over Palm Sunday weekend March 27 - 29. Enjoy the nature, beauty, quiet, and deep prayer opportunities during Lent this year. More information about the retreats may be found on www.heritagega.org/events or by contacting Catherine on catherinefuss@comcast.net.

Men's Night of Formation

All men of the parish are invited to retreat on Tuesday, January 27. Organized by Regnum Christi lay members from Holy Spirit and led by a Legionaries of Christ priest, these monthly retreats inspire men to deepen their faith. The evening begins at 6:00 PM in the Church with a rosary, Mass, and adoration, followed by dinner, a spiritual conference, and fellowship in Malta Hall. Donations for dinner are welcome. Confession is available. Contact Kurt Oppermann at truk0691@gmail.com with questions.

Women's Morning of Reflection Presents: "Witness: The First Way of Evangelization"

All women are invited to a morning of reflection on Saturday, January 31, in McDonough Hall. Beginning with the parish Mass at 8:30 AM, the morning includes a meditation and apostolic testimony with presenters Fr. Agustin de la Vega, LC and Rachel Wolf, confessions, and a light breakfast. RSVP if you will attend: bit.ly/MORJan2026.

Understanding Modernity Through Romano Guardini with the Great Books Discussion Group

In remarks to the College of Cardinals, Pope Benedict XVI quoted the late theologian Romano Guardini (1885–1968): "The Church is not an institution devised and built by men, but a living reality." This was Benedict's final citation of a theologian he often referenced in his homilies, encyclicals, and books.

Guardini's The End of the Modern World, first presented as lectures in the late 1940s, compares ancient, medieval, and modern cultures, concluding that the modern age has reached its end. Join us for an in-depth discussion of this influential work and one of the twentieth century's leading theologians.

The Great Books Discussion Group will meet on Thursday, February 12, at 7:00 PM in Side B of McDonough Hall. For more information, please contact Patrick Carey at 770-241-2511 or careyph@bellsouth.net.

Cita Bíblica

"Arrepiéntase, porque el reino de los cielos se ha acercado." - Mateo 4:17

Reflexión de la semana:

Esta semana, reflexione sobre las áreas de su vida en las que puede volverse más cerca a Dios, mediante el perdón, el servicio o una atención renovada a la oración, y a la fe. Busque una manera de vivir más plenamente en el reino de Dios, ya sea ayudando a un vecino, ofreciendo ánimo o defendiendo lo que es justo. Al alinear sus acciones con el llamado de Dios, usted pasa a formar parte de algo más grande: participar en la obra del reino de Dios aquí y ahora.
