This Week's Scripture

"Our soul waits for the LORD, who is our help and our shield. May your kindness, O LORD, be upon us who have put our hope in you." - Psalm 33:20-22

An exercise for this week:

Focus on placing your trust fully in God, especially in moments of uncertainty. Pray for practical ways to exercise the gift of patience. Take time to reflect on His kindness and allow His protection to strengthen your hope and faith.

All Saints Day - Friday, November 1

The Solemnity of All Saints commemorates the Saints - both known and unknown. It is a Holy Day of Obligation. Masses on Friday, November 1, will be celebrated at 8:30 AM, 12:30 PM, and 6:00 PM. The Vigil Mass will be celebrated on Thursday, October 31, at 6:00 PM. All Masses will be held in the Church.

All Souls Novena of Masses

Beginning on Saturday, November 2, we will celebrate our annual All Souls Novena of Masses. This series of Masses is offered over nine days for our loved ones, family members, or friends who have died. If you would like to have anyone remembered during this year's novena, place the All Souls collection envelope in the offertory basket before November 1.

Sunday Morning Adult Faith Formation - Practical Piety for the Layperson: The Rosary & Marian Intercession

Join Dr. Andrew McGovern at 10:00 AM in McDonough Hall this morning, Sunday, October 20, as he helps us rediscover the power and beauty of devotion to Jesus' mother. We will review the history of the Rosary and consider practical aspects of piety.

It's helpful to remember that the Rosary is "a compendium of the Gospels," as Pope St. John Paul II called it. The rosary is a devotion with very deep tradition in the Church, adopting the pattern of organized recitation of the psalms by medieval monks and turned into a hymn to Our Lady, with Our Lord and His life at the very center of the prayers and themes. "To recite the Rosary is in fact to contemplate with Mary the face of Christ," in Pope St. John Paul II's words. The Rosary's power is well-recognized. And whenever we pray it, it's inspiring to know that fellow Catholics around the world are also doing so.

Did you know that the first half of the Hail Mary comes from the Gospel of St. Luke, and the second half is the Church's recognition of Mary's greatness and our plea for assistance for all of us?

On Sunday, November 10, Dr. Andy Kurt will present "Exploring the Gospels Anew - Part 1." How credible are the Gospels for the life and words of Jesus? Who actually wrote them? Do you know the essential character of each Gospel? We'll dive into these themes and how the early Church took up the Evangelists' texts.

Women's Club News Upcoming Events

Women's Club Social

All women of the parish are welcome to attend the Women's Club Social on Thursday, October 24, from 5:00 PM - 7:00 PM at Ray's on the River, 6700 Powers Ferry Rd. NW, Sandy Springs. Donations for appetizers are appreciated.

Molly Fletcher Presents "Unleashing Your Potential" on Sunday, November 3

Join the Women's Club for a special Sunday November meeting at 12:30 PM in McDonough Hall. Molly Fletcher shares a framework for achieving sustained high performance with your purpose in the driver's seat. We know it takes tremendous drive to achieve. But unlike traditional approaches that reduce drive to the linear pursuit of a singular goal, Molly offers a proven formula for high performance in all areas of your life. It's about figuring out the parts of your life where you are playing small or are dissatisfied and creating sustainable and intentional change. You will walk away inspired to step into life with a renewed mindset, reignited energy, and the clarity to unlock your dynamic drive.

MINISTRY SPOTLIGHT

Walking With Moms in Need

Join us in supporting pregnant and parenting moms and their families, many of whom are in crisis.

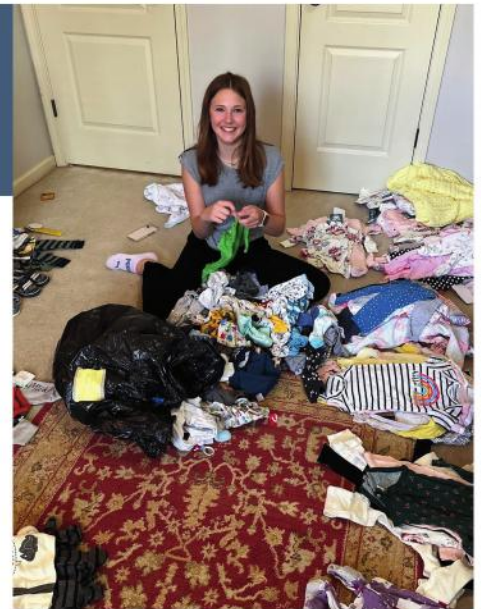

Walking with Moms in Need (WWMIN) is a compassionate ministry that serves both parishioners and women in our community who require assistance. Our dedicated volunteers offer support from pregnancy through the baby's first year, organizing baby showers, birthday parties, and holiday baskets, all while fostering a nurturing and supportive environment.

WWMIN supports mothers in crisis by offering OB care, baby items, budgeting help, housing research, job assistance, friendship, legal help, and more. They strive to accompany them on their parenting journey, especially when they lack family support.

This ministry is an initiative by the National Conference of Catholic Bishops, endorsed by Archbishop Hartmayer. The goal is to ensure every parish can assist pregnant and parenting moms in need by providing information, resources, and support.

Meeting Details:

- Frequency: There are no regular meetings; activities are planned as needed to support moms.
- Requirements: VIRTUS training is required for meeting one-on-one with clients.

Celebrate the Vocation of Marriage with a Holy Hour

Holy Spirit will celebrate the vocation of marriage with a Holy Hour on the second Sunday of every month, from 11:00 AM to noon, in St. Mary's Chapel. Couples are encouraged to pray together before the Blessed Sacrament, reflecting on how their marriage and the Eucharist are connected, as both sacraments make present the covenant of love between Christ, the bridegroom, and his beloved bride the church. All couples and individuals, especially those who are celebrating their wedding anniversary this month are invited to pray in thanksgiving for the blessing of their marriage and to strengthen their bond of peace and rejoice in the gifts of God's blessings for them. Please use the Adoration guides and a special prayer for the Holy Hour, available in the back of the Chapel.

Widows and widowers are welcome to also join in thanksgiving for the blessings that God granted upon their union, praying for comfort in their loss and for the hope to be reunited with their spouse one day in the eternal kingdom.

Join us next Sunday, October 27, after all morning Masses for the ever-popular Taste of Mexico. Members of our Latino community will prepare delicious delicacies which pay homage to their Mexican heritage.

The menu consists of tacos, gorditas, pozole, tamales, pupusas, tostadas, mole, flan, aguas frescas, and more!

Tickets on sale this weekend after all Masses and on the day of the event.

Conflicting Views of Fidelity Featured in November Great Books Selections

The nature of commitment and faithfulness is present in literature of all eras. British poet Philip Larkin's (1922-1985) An Arundel Tomb seems to present a traditional conception of love and fidelity, although questions challenge the view. American author Amy Bloom (1953-) describes a range of loving relationships in her short story Love is Not a Pie, where the narrator questions her commitment to a forthcoming marriage. Join us to discuss these conflicting views of fidelity.

The Great Books Discussion Group will meet on Thursday, November 14. For details, please contact Patrick Carey at 770-241-2511 or careyph@bellsouth.net.

Mass with Anointing of the Sick for Our Parish Seniors

Holy Spirit Catholic Church & Emory / St. Joseph Hospital invite our senior adults to a special Mass with the Anointing of the Sick on Thursday, November 7, at 11:00 AM in the Church, followed by a luncheon and fellowship in McDonough Hall. Join us for Mass and lunch, or just lunch, to help us kick off our new "Holy Spirited Seniors" group. We want your input on future social and spiritual events, such as regular luncheons, Bible studies, speakers, and more.

RSVP by Friday, November 1, by calling the parish office 404-252-4513, by using My Parish App, or hscatl.com/rsvp.

Those on Whom the Anointing of the Sick is to be Conferred:

The anointing of the sick can be administered to a member of the faithful who, having reached the use of reason, begins to be in danger due to sickness or old age. This sacrament can be repeated if the sick person, having recovered, again becomes gravely ill or if the condition becomes more grave during the same illness. Typically, the sacrament can be repeated annually for those in old age.

Jane Doe, a mother of eight—three grown, four still at home, and one child sadly passed—has faced many challenges. A survivor of domestic abuse, she has persevered, obtaining Section 8 housing and now works for KARE, a temp agency that helps her select nursing opportunities that fit her schedule.

In the past, SVdP has assisted her with electric bills, and recently, when her car broke down, we helped arrange a tow. Since her work depends on reliable transportation, this support is vital. We're awaiting the cost of repairs and expect more updates to her story. Jane remains prayerful, showing us posters of her family's prayers.

XXIX Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

"Pues bien, hecha esta petición, escucha lo que les responde Jesús: No sabéis lo que pedís. No es tiempo de coronas y de premios, sino de combates, luchas, sudores, de pruebas y de peleas. Esto es lo que significa la frase: No sabéis lo que pedís. Todavía no habéis probado las cárceles, aún no habéis salido a la palestra para combatir. ¿Sois capaces de beber el cáliz que yo he de beber, o de bautizaros con el bautismo con que yo me voy a bautizar? En este pasaje llama cáliz y bautismo a su cruz y a su muerte: cáliz, por la avidez con que lo apura; bautismo, porque por medio de su muerte iba a purificar el orbe de la tierra; y no sólo lo redimía de este modo, sino mediante la resurrección, si bien ésta no le resultaba penosa. Les dice: El cáliz que yo voy a beber lo beberéis, y os bautizaréis con el bautismo con que yo me voy a bautizar, refiriéndose de este modo a la muerte. Santiago fue efectivamente decapitado, y Juan fue varias veces condenado a muerte. Pero el sentarse a mi derecha o a mi izquierda no me toca a mí concederlo; está ya reservado. Vosotros, ciertamente, moriréis, os matarán, conseguiréis la corona del martirio; pero en cuanto a que seáis los primeros, no me toca a mí concederlo: lo recibirán los que luchan, en base a su mayor esfuerzo, en atención a su mayor prontitud de ánimo." San Juan Crisóstomo, Obispo

Los sacristanes tienen la importante función de garantizar el buen funcionamiento, mantenimiento, atmósfera sagrada, limpieza de la iglesia y la capilla. Las responsabilidades incluyen la reposición de velas y agua bendita así como la limpieza meticulosa de los vasos sagrados, purificadores y corporales. Trabajando en equipos de 2 o 3 personas, los sacristanes llevan a cabo estas tareas aproximadamente una vez cada dos meses. Para Reflexionar en Nuestros Hogares

Cita Bíblica

"El amor es sufrido, es benigno; el amor no tiene envidia, el amor no es jactancioso, no se envanece; no hace nada indebido, no busca lo suyo, no se irrita, no guarda rencor; no se goza de la injusticia, mas se goza de la verdad. Todo lo sufre, todo lo cree, todo lo espera, todo lo soporta." 1 Corintios 13:4-7

Ejercicio de la semana

En familia, reflexionemos sobre la importancia del amor en nuestro diario vivir.
