This Week's Scripture

"The blind man replied to him, 'Master, I want to see.' Jesus told him, 'Go your way; your faith has saved you.'" - Mark 10:51-52

An exercise for this week:

Ask God to open your eyes to His presence in your life. Reflect on how your faith can lead you to see the world with greater clarity and trust in His guidance.

Mass Schedule for the Solemnity of All Saints

The Solemnity of All Saints commemorates the Saints - both known and unknown. It is a Holy Day of Obligation. Masses on Friday, November 1, will be celebrated at 8:30 AM, 12:30 PM, and 6:00 PM. The Vigil Mass will be celebrated on Thursday, October 31, at 6:00 PM. All Masses will be held in the Church.

All Souls Novena of Masses

Beginning on Saturday, November 2, we will celebrate our annual All Souls Novena of Masses. This series of Masses is offered over nine days for our loved ones, family members or friends who have died. If you would like to have anyone remembered during this year's novena, place the All Souls collection envelope in the offertory basket before November 1.

Celebrate Life at 40 Days for Life Closing Event

Join us for the 40 Days for Life 2024 Closing Celebration on Monday, November 4, with Mass at 6:00 PM in the Church and a dinner celebration at 6:30 PM in McDonough Hall. Parishioner Josh Harris will bring laughter and entertainment to our celebration with a clean, fun-filled comedy routine that's sure to keep everyone smiling. Ippolito's pasta and garlic knots will be served, and we are asking guests to sign up to bring a salad, vegetable, or dessert to share. To RSVP or for more information, email Cathy Schneider at cathyschneider123@gmail.com.

Taste of Mexico

Join us TODAY, after all morning Masses for the ever-popular Taste of Mexico. Members of our Latino community will prepare delicious delicacies which pay homage to their Mexican heritage.

The menu consists of tacos, gorditas, pozole, tamales, pupusas, tostadas, mole, flan, aguas frescas, and more!

First Friday Adoration

Our monthly First Friday Adoration will take place in St. Mary's Chapel on Friday, November 1, from 9:00 AM until 5:30 PM, and again from 6:30 PM until 8:30 AM. All are invited to stop by the chapel to spend some quiet time in prayer with the Lord. For those interested in serving as a guardian by committing to one hour each month, visit hsccatl.com/myhour to sign up.

*"Come to me...
I will give you rest."
Matthew 11:28*

Adoration Coloring Supplies Available for Children

All families are encouraged to come adore Jesus for any amount of time on Sunday mornings or on First Fridays. Teaching children at a young age to love spending time with our Lord is priceless. Adoration coloring books and crayons are available in the chapel for children to color a picture for Jesus; please return unused coloring pages and crayons to the stand when finished.

First Saturday Rosary

Please join us in St. Mary's Chapel after the 8:30 AM Mass, on Saturday, November 2, to pray the rosary and unite in prayer with our Blessed Mother. Please direct all questions to Anne Rieger at annerieger@icoloud.com.

MINISTRY SPOTLIGHT

Friends of the Amelia Mary Garden

Join our ministry to help maintain the beauty and tranquility of the Amelia Mary Memorial Garden. Your involvement ensures that this special place continues to offer comfort and peace to all who visit.

Our parish is fortunate to have this peaceful resting place for the cremated remains of our loved ones, located near the happy sounds of the preschool playground. The Friends of the Amelia Mary Memorial Garden ministry is dedicated to ensuring the Garden looks well-tended and loved.

As a beginner or an experienced gardener, there are various ways to participate:

- Planting: Help plant flowers that keep the garden vibrant throughout the year.
- Pruning the Roses: Ensure our roses are healthy and beautiful.
- Watering: Join our 'water angel' team and commit to water on a designated day.
- Tidying Up: Keep the garden tidy by removing trash and spent flowers

Special Events:

- Quarterly Garden Planting/Clean Up: Join us four times a year to refresh the garden.
- Annual Christmas Decorating: Help us decorate the garden for the holiday season.

No Gardening Experience Required: All are welcome, regardless of gardening experience. We provide guidance and support to help you contribute meaningfully.

The Amelia Mary Garden honors Amelia Mary Hewett, a 3 yr. old parishioner who died in 2006.

For more information or to join the Amelia Mary Garden, email Katharine O'Hare at kohare123@bellsouth.net or Cartha O'Hare: cartha.ohare@gmail.com.

Celebrate National Vocation Awareness Week – November 3-9

“Each of you has a personal vocation which He has given you for your own joy and sanctity.”
- Pope Benedict XVI

National Vocation Awareness Week, held this year from November 3 - 9, is an annual week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in the United States dedicated to promoting vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to renew our prayers and support for those who are considering one of these particular vocations.

We will have a table in the Narthex after all Masses next weekend with information and prayer cards in support of vocational discernment. Please be sure to stop by and continue to pray for vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life.

Support Holy Spirit Catholic Church with Stock Donations – Updated Process

Did you know that Holy Spirit Catholic Church accepts stocks as a charitable or tithing donation? Stock donations are often made to maximize the benefit you can give to the parish. There are tax deduction benefits and rules around what you can report on your taxes, so if you are interested, please work with your accountant or financial advisor. If you are ready to donate stock, Holy Spirit Catholic Church accepts stock donations through the Archdiocese of Atlanta. Visit lifeofthechurch.com/donate for instructions on how to donate.

Important notice to parishioners who have donated stock in the past: Effective October 1, 2024, the Archdiocese of Atlanta has changed the process for accepting charitable stock donations. All stock donations need to be sent to the Archdiocese, who will process the request and forward the donation, on your behalf, to Holy Spirit Catholic Church. Please visit lifeofthechurch.com/donate for new instructions. If you have any questions, please contact Tracy Zelczak, tzelczak@archatl.com, 404-920-7606, or Kelly Angelo at the church office, kangelo@hscatl.com.

Thank You, Officer Maxine McGrath, and Welcome, Officer Scott Oliver!

We would like to thank our beloved police officer, Maxine McGrath, for her years of service to Holy Spirit Catholic Church. After 18 years, Maxine, who has helped direct our traffic every Sunday morning and on holidays, has decided to retire. We can look forward to seeing Maxine in a church pew instead of the parking lot in the future. If you see Maxine this weekend, please tell her “thanks and congratulations.”

We are very excited to announce that Officer Scott Oliver will now be directing traffic beginning next weekend, November 3. Scott has filled in for Maxine in the past and is looking forward to getting to know the parishioners. When you see Scott, please welcome him, and introduce yourself.

Conflicting Views of Fidelity Featured in November Great Books Selections

The nature of commitment and faithfulness is present in literature of all eras. British poet Philip Larkin's (1922-1985) An Arundel Tomb seems to present a traditional conception of love and fidelity, although questions challenge the view. American author Amy Bloom (1953-) describes a range of loving relationships in her short story Love is Not a Pie, where the narrator questions her commitment to a forthcoming marriage.

The Great Books Discussion Group will meet on Thursday, November 14 in Malta Hall. For details, please contact Patrick Carey at 770-241-2511 or careyph@bellsouth.net. Join us to discuss these conflicting views of fidelity.

Seniors of Our Parish: Join Us for a Special Mass with Anointing of the Sick & Luncheon – Thursday, November 7

Holy Spirit Catholic Church & Emory / St. Joseph Hospital invite our senior adults to a special Mass with the Anointing of the Sick on Thursday, November 7, at 11:00 AM in the Church, followed by a luncheon and fellowship in McDonough Hall. Join us for Mass and lunch, or just lunch, to help us kick off our new "Holy Spirited Seniors" group. We want your input on future social and spiritual events, such as regular luncheons, Bible studies, speakers, and more.

RSVP by Friday, November 1, by calling the parish office 404-252-4513, by using My Parish App, or hscatl.com/rsvp.

Those on Whom the Anointing of the Sick is to be Conferred:

The anointing of the sick can be administered to a member of the faithful who, having reached the age of reason, begins to be in danger due to sickness or old age. This sacrament can be repeated if the sick person, having recovered, again becomes gravely ill or if the condition becomes more grave during the same illness. Typically, the sacrament can be repeated annually for those in old age.

Proceeds from our Thrift Stores directly fund programs and services that provide help and hope to people in need.

At Holy Spirit Catholic Church, your contributions to our SVdP Red Barn account for over 1,500 pounds of donations each week. Thank you! You make a lasting impact on our community!

Molly Fletcher shares a framework for achieving sustained high performance with your purpose in the driver's seat. We know it takes tremendous drive to achieve. But unlike traditional approaches that reduce drive to the linear pursuit of a singular goal, Molly offers a proven formula for high performance in all areas of your life. It's about figuring out the parts of your life where you are playing small or are dissatisfied and creating sustainable and intentional change. You will walk away inspired to step into life with a renewed mindset, reignited energy, and the clarity to unlock your dynamic drive.

Sunday Morning Adult Faith Formation: Discovering the Gospels Anew - Part I

How credible are the Gospels for the life and words of Jesus? Who actually wrote them? Did you know the essential character of each Gospel? On Sundays, November 10 and 24, Professor Andrew Kurt will dive into these themes and how the early Church took up the Evangelists' texts in a two-part series.

Our Adult Faith Formation program meets at 10:00 AM in McDonough Hall on select Sundays.

HOLY SPIRIT PHOENIX

Behold! Our New Youth Group Name and Logo: Phoenix!

Maybe some of you are wondering "Why did they choose Phoenix as a name?" The use of the phoenix as a Christian image dates to the early Christians. The phoenix was commonly used as a symbol for Christ's resurrection and eternity.

Near the end of the first century, St. Clement of Rome wrote about the legendary bird's ability to die in its own ashes only to rise again (in a similar way to Christ). He concluded, "Do we then deem it any great and wonderful thing for the Maker of all things to raise up again those that have piously served Him in the assurance of a good faith, when even by a bird He shows us the mightiness of His power to fulfill His promise?"

Stump the Clergy on November 3

All teens are invited to "Stump the Clergy" on Sunday, November 3, at 6:30 PM in the Youth Room (in the basement of the McDonough Hall building). We will set up a panel discussion between a variety of priests, seminarians, deacons, and other religious.

Attendees should come prepared to ask questions that you think will leave our panel of clergy members speechless; think of something that is serious, zany, or somewhere in between!

Examples:

- "If the host turns into Jesus, why does it still taste like bread?"
- "What house in Harry Potter would Pope Francis be in?"
- "If aliens landed, how would you tell them about Jesus?"

We look forward to seeing you there!
