This Week's Scripture

"Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much." — Luke 16:10

An exercise for this week:

In Luke 16, Jesus teaches us about faithfulness and stewardship in all areas of life — not just the big things, but the small, everyday choices. This week, focus on being trustworthy with what you have right now, whether it's time, resources, or relationships. Pay attention to how you manage your daily responsibilities and consider how generosity and honesty can build something greater. Remember, being faithful in little things prepares you to be part of God's bigger plan.

Women of the parish are invited to support our priests—Fr. Luke Ballman, Fr. Cristian Cossio, and Fr. Joseph Nguyen—by joining the Seven Sisters Apostolate, a beautiful international ministry of prayer.

Each participant commits to one Holy Hour of Eucharistic Adoration per week for a designated priest, ensuring continuous prayer for his intentions and protection throughout the week.

The Seven Sisters Apostolate is active in many countries, all 50 U.S. states, and includes over 40 groups within the Archdiocese of Atlanta.

To learn more about this apostolate or to join, please contact Marie Cahal, the Seven Sisters Apostolate Atlanta Area Coordinator, at sevensistersatl@gmail.com.

There's no limit to the number of women who can participate—seven is just the beginning!

Mass and Reception for Missionaries of Charity

All parishioners are invited to a special Mass for the members of the Gift of Grace Home Ministry and the Missionaries of Charity in St. Mary's Chapel on Friday, October 17, at 10:00 AM. We are delighted the Sisters, who belong to the religious community founded by Mother Teresa (St. Teresa of Calcutta), will join us!

Walking With Purpose Presents "Opening Your Heart" Bible Study

Tuesday 6:30 PM - 8:00 PM
September 23 - April 14
Lower Level Meeting Room, Parish Office Building

Welcome to Opening Your Heart: The Starting Point. This Bible study will take you on an exciting journey closer to the heart of God, help you form a personal relationship with Christ, and help you find answers to life's biggest questions through the context of the Catholic faith.

Opening Your Heart is an incredibly effective guide to deep, lasting transformation of the heart, and we encourage all participants new to Walking with Purpose to begin their journey here, regardless of previous experience with Bible study.

Join us as we explore the core questions that we need to wrestle with if we want to experience all that God has for us.

- How can I conquer my fears?
- What is the role of the Holy Spirit in my life?
- What does the Eucharist have to do with my friendship with Christ?
- What are the limits of Christ's forgiveness?
- Why and how should I pray?
- What is the role of suffering in my life?
- What challenges will I face in my efforts to follow Jesus more closely?

Sign up for this study at hscatl.com/rsvp. For more information or questions, please email WWPHolySpirit@gmail.com.

From Rome to the Trenches: Great Books Explores Two Voices on War

Since the earliest writings, war has been a recurring theme in poetry and literature. In our upcoming discussion, the Great Books Discussion Group will explore two brief selections on this subject. Horace (65–8 BC), writing in the first century BCE, praises the sacrifices required by loyalty to one's country in Ode 3.2. Centuries later, Wilfred Owen (1893–1918) drew on his harrowing experiences of trench warfare to compose Dulce et Decorum Est - its title borrowed from Horace. His vivid account of modern combat reflects the grim realities of World War I. Tragically, Owen was killed in battle just a week before the war ended.

The next meeting of the Great Books Discussion Group is on Thursday, October 9, at 7:00 PM in McDonough Hall, Side B. For more information, contact Patrick Carey at 770-241-2511 or careyph@bellsouth.net.

Para Reflexionar en Nuestros Hogares

Cita Bíblica

"Aquel a quien se le puede confiar muy poco, también se le puede confiar mucho..." Lucas 16:10

Reflexión de la semana:

En Lucas 16, Jesús nos enseña sobre la fidelidad y la administración en todas las áreas de la vida, no solo en las cosas grandes, sino también en las pequeñas decisiones cotidianas. Esta semana, concéntrate en ser confiable con lo que tienes ahora mismo, ya sea tiempo, recursos o relaciones. Presta atención a cómo manejas tus responsabilidades diarias y considera cómo la generosidad y la honestidad pueden construir algo más grande. Recuerda, ser fiel en las cosas pequeñas te prepara para ser parte del plan más grande de Dios.

Apoya a nuestros sacerdotes a través del Apostolado de las Siete Hermanas

Se invita a las mujeres de la comunidad a apoyar a nuestros sacerdotes, el Padre Luke Ballman, el Padre Cristian Cossio y el Padre Joseph Nguyen, uniéndose al Apostolado de las Siete Hermanas, un hermoso ministerio internacional de oración.

Cada participante se compromete a una Hora Santa de Adoración Eucarística por semana para un sacerdote designado, asegurando la oración continua por sus intenciones y protección durante toda la semana.

El Apostolado de las Siete Hermanas está activo en muchos países, y en los 50 estados de Estados Unidos que incluyen más de 40 grupos dentro de la Arquidiócesis de Atlanta. Para obtener más información sobre este apostolado o para unirse, comuníquese con Marie Cahal, Coordinadora del Área de Atlanta, en sevensistersatl@gmail.com.

No hay límite para el número de mujeres que pueden participar; siete es solo el comienzo!
