This Week's Scripture

"Whoever does not carry their cross and follow me cannot be my disciple." — Luke 14:27

An exercise for this week:

Following Jesus means embracing challenges and sacrifices as part of our faith journey. This week, reflect on the crosses you carry—big or small—and offer them to God with trust and love. Consider how you can walk more closely with Christ by facing difficulties with faith and serving others despite obstacles. Remember, you are part of something greater — a community that carries and supports each other.

Parish News

Welcome to Our New Seminarian Oswaldo Franco

We are delighted to introduce Oswaldo (Ozzie) Franco, a seminarian currently studying at St. Vincent de Paul Seminary in Boynton Beach, Florida, who will be with us until June 2026. A native of Rome, GA, Ozzie was raised in a vibrant household with Mexican and Guatemalan roots, alongside his parents and three siblings. Ozzie's extracurricular activities reflect a blend of contemplative and active pursuits; he loves running, playing guitar and piano, listening to music, cooking, savoring coffee, and being immersed in nature.

Inspired by St. Paul's words in 1 Corinthians 9:22, Ozzie seeks to share Christ's truth with empathy and adaptability. Formed through LifeTeen, spiritual guidance, and To Save a Thousand Souls, his vocation has deepened in seminary through prayer, study, community, and even beach time. Preparing for priesthood, he looks forward to offering the sacraments, guiding souls, and leading Bible studies. His journey reflects fidelity, humility, and missionary zeal. Please join in welcoming Ozzie as he prepares to serve our parish.

Wednesdays, September 24 - December 10

*(skipping November 5 and 26)
at 10:00 AM, Parish Office

If you've experienced the loss of a loved one through death, you are invited to join a small-group grief support program this fall. Guided by Dr. Wolfelt's book, Understanding Your Grief: The Ten Essential Touchstones for Finding Hope and Healing Your Heart, this 10-week session will be led by parishioner Ellen Cocks, a trained facilitator with a certificate in death and grief studies, specializing in "companioning others through grief."

The cost for the book and journal is $27 and will be due at the first session. Please note, the group will close after the first session. Space is limited, and pre-registration is required. If interested, please email Ellen Cocks at ellen@sweetlittlesoul.com.

Support Our Priests Through the Seven Sisters Apostolate

Women of the parish are invited to support our priests—Fr. Luke Ballman, Fr. Cristian Cossio, and Fr. Joseph Nguyen—by joining the Seven Sisters Apostolate, a beautiful international ministry of prayer.

Each participant commits to one Holy Hour of Eucharistic Adoration per week for a designated priest, ensuring continuous prayer for his intentions and protection throughout the week.

The Seven Sisters Apostolate is active in many countries, all 50 U.S. states, and includes over 40 groups within the Archdiocese of Atlanta.

To learn more about this apostolate or to join, please contact Marie Cahal, the Seven Sisters Apostolate Atlanta Area Coordinator, at sevensistersatl@gmail.com.

There's no limit to the number of women who can participate—seven is just the beginning!

St. Pier Giorgio Frassati - Canonized Today!

Love your Neighbor
Live Vincentian

Saint Pier Giorgio Frassati was canonized today, September 7, during the Jubilee Year in Rome. A Vincentian at just 17, Pier Giorgio dedicated his life to serving the poor with humility and joy. He was deeply devoted to the Eucharist, frequently attending daily Mass and adoration. Courageous in faith, he also spoke out against fascism and injustice, defending the dignity of every person. He died at just 24. At his funeral, hundreds of the poor he had quietly served came to mourn him—bearing witness to a life lived for others and calling for his sainthood. Frassati shows us that holiness is possible—right now, in everyday life—through prayer, compassion, and the courage to stand with those in need.

To learn more about the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, please email us at SVDP@HSCCATL.com.

"Each of you knows that the foundation of our faith is charity. Without it, our religion would crumble."

Women of the Word: Rediscovering Hope - 8 Lessons to Turn Pain into Purpose

Tuesdays, beginning September 16
9:00 AM - 10:30 AM in McDonough Hall
Register at hscatl.com/RSVP

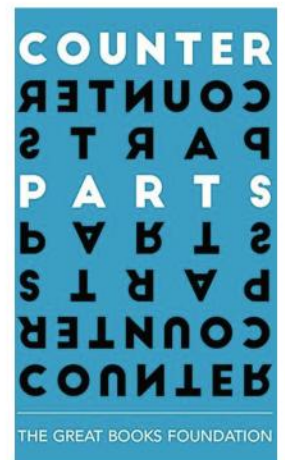

Join Women of the Word as they study the book, Rediscovering Hope, by Paula Umata. This Catholic book study reveals how God can transform life's deepest struggles into grace and purpose. Through real-life stories, prayers, and scripture, it explores the beauty of redemptive suffering - the Catholic belief that pain, when united with Christ, becomes a source of healing and spiritual growth.

From Rome to the Trenches: Great Books Explores Two Voices on War

Since the earliest writings, war has been a recurring theme in poetry and literature. In our upcoming discussion, the Great Books Discussion Group will explore two brief selections on this subject. Horace (65-8 BC), writing in the first century BCE, praises the sacrifices required by loyalty to one's country in Ode 3.2. Centuries later, Wilfred Owen (1893-1918) drew on his harrowing experiences of trench warfare to compose Dulce et Decorum Est - its title borrowed from Horace. His vivid account of modern combat reflects the grim realities of World War I. Tragically, Owen was killed in battle just a week before the war ended.

The next meeting of the Great Books Discussion Group is on Thursday, October 9, at 7:00 PM in McDonough Hall, Side B. For further information, please contact Patrick Carey at 770-241-2511 or careyph@bellsouth.net.

Para Reflexionar en Nuestros Hogares

Cita Bíblica

"El que no carga su cruz y me sigue, no puede ser mi discípulo". Lucas 14-27

Reflexión de la semana:

Seguir a Jesús significa aceptar los desafíos y los sacrificios como parte de nuestro camino de fe. Esta semana reflexiona sobre las cruces que llevas, grandes o pequeñas y ofrécelas a Dios con confianza y amor. Considera como puedes caminar más cerca de Cristo al enfrentar las dificultades con fe y servir a los demás a pesar de los obstáculos. Recuerda, eres parte de algo más grande: Una comunidad que se apoya mutuamente.
